Frequently Asked Questions....

1. About Riding To The Top (RTT)

RTT is a 501(c)(3) non-profit whose mission is enhancing health and wellness through equine-assisted services. We serve over 250 children and adults with disabilities annually and receive no municipal, state or federal funding (more than 60% of our clients receive some level of scholarship). RTT has a small professional staff, hundreds of volunteers and a herd of 14 trained horses.

The Triple B—Boots, Band, and Barbeque is the largest fundraising event for Riding To The Top Therapeutic Riding Center (RTT) and raises critical funds to support our Scholarship Fund and our Horse Fund (care and development of our herd).

- Meet the horses and Social hour with a “donation” bar
- Delicious barbeque meal catered by Denny Mike
- Inspirational speaker, slideshow and videos
- A fast paced mission driven auction where guests “bid” their support for our clients and horses (instead of bidding on things you really don’t need or want!). At the Triple B, every bid is a winner, providing direct support for our clients and horses

- Table Hosts commit to filling a table(s). Each table seats up to 8 people and costs $600 if purchased by September 1st (after October 1st the price goes up to $720). Table hosts invite guests who may have both interest and inclination in supporting RTT.
- Communicating the purpose of the event (raising funds for Scholarship and Horse Funds) with your guests.
- Completing The Triple B Guest information sheet by October 1st— the guest information sheet is critical for many reasons, but most importantly insuring that check in and check out go smoothly! The information sheet can be e-mailed to: info@ridingtothetop.org or mailed to RTT, 14 Lilac Drive, Windham, ME 04062.
- Table hosts ensure (or coordinate with their guests) payment for the table. Table payment can be made by cash, check or credit card (Visa, MasterCard and Discover).
